MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The increase in the number of whales is becoming noteworthy. Frequently we hear of the huge monsters getting in the pathway of sailing vessels, and breaking propellers or paddle wheels. For all this coal oil is responsible. It is so much easier to sink a well than to fit out a whaler that sperm oil has been replaced by kerosene. It is so much easier to make springs in shops than to harpoon whales that steel and celluloid have taken the place of whalebone long ago in umbrellas and corsets. Meanwhile the sportive whales go on marrying and replenishing the seas until their numbers are becoming formidable.

The Russian War Office intends to substitute long marches from town to town for the annual manœuvres of the troops which have hitherto taken place. The first trial of the new rule will be on the occasion of the coronation of the Emperor and Empress. The troops of the Guard will then march from St. Petersburg to Moscow to take part in the ceremony.

At a grand court shooting party at Konigswinterhausen, in Germany, on December 13, 300 head of big game, mostly deer and wild boars, were slaughtered, of which 39 fell to the Emperor and 36 to the King of Saxony, the other princes and dignitaries being as nearly as possible in proportion to their rank—which is curious to think of.

The rage of a Minnesota farmer at his balky horse did not subside when the day's work was done, but rose higher as he lay in bed thinking of the annoyance he had endured. He dressed, loaded a gun, went to the stable, and deliberately killed the beast.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

BLAINE' NOTE TO CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA.

The general character of Blaine's circular note to Central and South America has become known. It bears date of the middle of November, and was sent by the same steamer which conveyed Prescott and Walker. It sets forth at considerable length the attitude of the United States toward other Republics upon this and the South American continent, affirming that it is our policy to use the gold and offices of this nation to establish and perpetuate peace between the various nations to which this note is addressed. He affirms that it is the decree, or policy, of the United States not to interfere in the domestic concerns of any of these nations, but that the commercial interests of the United States are deeply interested in the existence of harmonious relations between the various Republics themselves and between each and the United States. The letter, after discussing at great length the mutual interests of the United States and nations addressed, treats the question of the great influence European powers have upon two American continents, and virtually proposes that the United States and the various other Republics to which this circular letter is sent should come to a mutual understanding in regard to this matter, and proposes mutual guarantees against any interference from abroad. The letter was prepared with great care, and, while the subjects alluded to are fully discussed, the tone of the letter is said to be eminently conservative. The letter proposes, on behalf of the United States, that an international conference of the Republics of Mexico, Central and South America meet at Washington on the 30th of next November. The representation is made that the authorities of each should name two Commissioners to represent their Governments at this conference. The object is to discuss questions of mutual interest and promote a friendly feeling.

A second circular letter was mailed to each of our Ministers, setting forth that while it was well understood to be a very delicate matter for one nation to mention pecuniary matters to another in connection with such invitation as had been extended by the United States, still our Goverment desired to defray all the expenses of this conference, and it was therefore in the discretion of each Minister to call this fact to the attention of the Government to which he is accredited in such a way as shall appear to him most fitting.

The Democrats of Ormsby county see a chance to step into office through a door left open by death and are urging Lieutenant-Governor Adams to appoint one of their number as a Commissioner of Ormsby county to fill the the place of Crawford deceased. Governor Kinkead being out of the State, Acting-Governor Adams will no doubt embrace the golden opportunity to reward some faithful friend.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

—The New York Legislature has adjourned until Tuesday next.

—Angelo Costella, who murdered Daniel Cash in Sing Sing prison, attempted suicide this morning. He will recover.

—A Washington dispatch says there is no truth in the report that Secretary Hunt has been tendered the Austrian mission. Hunt expects to remain at the head of the navy.

—The French Government has repudiated the conduct of its subordinates in annexing the Island of Raiatea, in the South Pacific, which has caused much comment in England and Australia.

Retaliating Natives.

ST. PETERSBURG, January 5.

The natives on the Kuldja frontier retaliated the Chinese cruelties. They massacred the inhabitants of two small settlements, and defeated a detachment of three hundred and fifty Chinese troops.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

This Settles It.

CHICAGO, January 5.

The Tribune's Galena special says: Wm. H. Hooper, an influential, wealthy Mormon, from Salt Lake, and for eight years a delegate, is now here. He says he will visit his old friend E. B. Washburn, two days, and leave for Washington Sunday evening, to labor for Cannon. He says Mormonism is doing wonders for the country, and for the Territory of Utah, and that polygamy is practically abolished. He apprehends no decided interference with Mormonism at the hands of the present or any future Administration; that it is impregnably established in Utah, and that any attempt to dislodge it would have the effect of intensifying the feeling among its believers, and would prove utterly futile.

An Editor Arrested for Perjury.

NEW YORK, January 5.

Charles A. Byrne, formerly the editor of Truth and the Dramamic News, has been arrested on a charge of perjury, the complainant being Joseph Hart of Truth. On being conducted before Justice Smith, at the Tombs, he stated he was prepared to give bonds for his appearance on examination before Judge Bixby, by whom a warrant was issued. He was then accompanied back to the District Attorney's office by the officer, where the necessary documents are to be executed. It is alleged that Byrne is wanted in Brooklyn at present on other charges of a grave nature.

The End in Sight.

WASHINGTON, January 5.

Guiteau's counsel will give Judge Cox their law points to-morrow, and Judge Cox will rule on them immediately on the opening of Court on Saturday.

Davidge will occupy the day in opening for the prosecution. Scoville and Reed will reply, and Guiteau will be allowed to address the jury if he desires.

Judge Porter will close. Scoville thinks the arguments will require four days. If so, the case will go to the jury by Thursday next.

Scoville's Disappointment.

WASHINGTON, January 5.

Neither Reed or Scoville seem at all sanguine of a favorable verdict, yet both not only stoutly maintain that Guiteau was not legally responsible for his act, but is, at this moment, insane, his own assertions to the contrary, notwithstanding. Scoville was greatly disappointed at his failure to get before the jury yesterday the additional expert evidence with which he had expected to rebut the testimony of Government experts.

Pensylvania Loan.

HARRISBURG, Pa, January 5.

The $10,000,000 loan of the State was all awarded to-day. The greater part of it runs thirty years, at four per cent., and commands a premium of 106 to 110. About $1,500,000 was awarded at 2¾ premium. This runs thirty years; at three and a half per cent.

New York Death Rate.

NEW YORK, January 5.

The number of deaths recorded at the Bureau of Vital Statistics yesterday was 150, the great increase being due to the sudden severity of the weather. The usual daily rate is under 100.

Cabinet Probabilities.

NEW YORK, January 5.

The Post's Washington correspondent says: A Senator who saw Arthur yesterday says he left with the belief that Sargent and Beals are to be Secretaries respectively of the Interior and Navy. Secretary Lincoln's future is still a problem.

Logan and Sherman.

CHICAGO, January 5.

A Washington special says that Generals Logan and Sherman are greatly embarrassed because of Grant's change of heart on the Porter matter. Grant has written Arthur on the subject.

An Old Veteran Gone.

NEW YORK, January 5.

Ebenezer Lond, a veteran of the war of 1812, aged 86 years, died here yesterday.

No Duel.

NEW YORK, January 5.

A Post Washington special states that Representative Blackburn has replied to the card of Burbridge, of Kentucky, the letter having been delivered this afternoon. Those who know the nature oi the reply say there will be no duel, and that both gentlemen will be politically benefitted by the correspondence, Blackburn among the ex-Confederate, and Burbridge with the Northern and Union men. The correspondence will soon be published.

FOREIGN.

Foreign Honors Slipping Away.

LONDON, Eng., January 5.

Regarding the mandamus that has been applied for in the Court of the Queen's Bench, to quash the resolution conferring the freedom of citizens Dillon and Parnell, a Dublin correspondent of the Times says: "If the points shall be established by the Queen's Bench that no one who is not a burgher can, under the existing clause in the corporation act receive the freedom of the city, it would vitiate all votes of such freedom which have been passed if anyone rose to press it, thus the names of Gladstone and General Grant would be erased from the roll, but it is questionable whether they would regret being deprived of the distinction which has already lost much of its value by the alloy of disaffection and disloyalty, added to it by the recent proceeding.

WESTERN.

A Nevada Man Commits Suicide.

SACRAMENTO, January 4.

Myron H. Bailey, late a superintendent of a mine in Humboldt county, Nevada, and some time ago in business at Rye Patch and Oreana, shot and killed himself at his hotel to-day. Cause, despondency because of illness. Bailey was 50 years of age and a native of Michigan.

BORN.

LEWIS—In this city, January 1st, 1882, to the wife of A. Lewis, twin daughters.

JOTTINGS.

Riverside party next Tuesday evening.

The Grand Jury has adjourned over until next Monday.

The Board of Pardons will meet Monday, January 9th.

The Imperial has levied an assessment of ten cents per share.

I. Barnett gives a notice in the 50-cent. column of interest to all who are indebted to him.

Pete Evans has lost a lap robe, and will pay a reward to anyone returning it to him. See advt.

McLeish and Milburn received the $100 reward, offered for the capture of Johnson the convict, last night.

Blank books of every description at Nasby's Bazaar. Thermometer at 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3, was 48, 52, 55, 56, 56.

The cases of Jane Lake vs. M. C. Lake, and Nelson vs. the Jones & Kinkead Mining Co., occupied the attention of the District Court to-day.

"My wife's mother was afflicted with rheumatism for twenty years, and tried almost every remedy without relief until she used St. Jacob's Oil. Three bottles entirely cured her. It is the best remedy I have ever seen," writes Frank P. Dryden, Pocomoke City, Md.

Personals.

Col. A. C. Ellis, Carson, was in town last night.

Mrs. Lewis Dean has gone to Stockton, Cal., to spend the Winter.

J. M. Maguire, of the firm of Sprunance, Stanley & Co., San Francisco, is in town. Mr. Maguire returns to his home this evening.

Miss Gertrude Gardner and Mrs. M. J. Bradley, San Francisco, are registered at the Lake House. Mrs. Bradley is a distinguished elocutionist and Miss Gardner is a teacher in the San Francisco public school.

Nevada Failure.

Harris Lewis, of H. Lewis & Co., bankers and commission merchants of Austin, has been declared an insolvent debtor. His liabilities are reported at $115,561 46, most of it due to wholesale merchants of San Francisco, one item being a judgment of $98,524 33, held by R. Schoenfield, of Schoenfeld, Cohen & Co., of that city. The assets, says the Silver State, are said to be $25,000 in real estate, mortgaged for $5,000, a homestead in San Francisco and and a piece of land in San Rafael, already conveyed to Schainwald by order of the United States District Court.

Another Mine Discovered.

Michael Milich writes the GAZETTE that while out prospecting a few days ago at Ppramid, he discovered a quartz ledge that is very rich. He sunk a shaft sixteen feet deep and six feet square. Two assays of the rock taken, one from the surface and one from the bottom of the shaft, went $27 32, and $167 50 per ton. Many samples can be found showing free gold. S. K. Barber and S. Jones have located a claim adjoining Milch's find.

Rain and Snow.

The weather is unusually wet here, says the Silver State, for this or any other season of the year. Yesterday it rained pretty lively for an hour or so, and this morning it poured down again for awhile. While it rains in the valleys it snows in the mountains, thus gladdening the hearts of farmers with the prospect of plenty of water next summer. Yesterday it snowed from Elko to east of Utah.

Lien Filed.

H. J. McMurray filed a lien on the Nevada & Oregon Railroad yesterday for $33,961 62.

CONVERTED CRIMINALS.

The New Version Has Its Effect—Carson Parsons Engaged in a Noble Work.

Some of the convicts in the Nevada Penitentiary are turning their attention to religious matters. They have bought an organ, and organized a Bible class, and are trying to secure the services of Hank Monk to conduct their sacred exercises. "Where is my wandering boy to-night," is the favorite song. It is said that many of the boys shed buckets of briny tears while listening to it—but up to date they have never answered. "In States Prison" would settle the vexed question, and leave many a mother no longer in doubt.

Old John Squires, who has sat at "Dead Man's Point," on the Geiger Grade and waited the coming of the coach many a night, and at last immortalized himself by being the first man to enter the express car at the time of the Verdi car robbery, is the leading spirit in the spiritual revival.

John Roach, a murderer from White Pine county, wears out the knees of more pantaloons than all the others combined. He devotes several hours a day to prayer.

Thos. Flynn, alias Matt Rafferty, with a clean score on the criminal calendar—that is to say guilty of every crime in the criminal code—has embraced the faith, and in his addresses to the Deity is very eloquent, and is entitled to many sympathizers. Flynn's original sentence was light—only four years for grand larceny—but being a man of noble thought and quick perception, concluded that the Court had not given him a "fair shake," and scaled the wall in the break of '71. While out he committed robbery, and seeing a chance to kick in the panel of a door, burglarized a house, for which he was arrested and sent up for fourteen years. After his return to prison the Court knocked two years more of his valuable time into a cocked hat for the part he took in the break. Not satisfied, he again came smilingly to the front and indulged in another little hurrah at the State's expense and got ten years more added to his other sentences—making a total of twenty-seven years. Poor Flynn! Life seemed bitter, and he thought his luck hard. Feeling a little humorous one morning, he took a large bread-knife and skirmished for the heart of a fellow prisoner (W. H. Bethard). His luck in the last enterprise was satisfactory to himself at least—he found poor Bill's vitals and dispatched him to the other shore. For that little bit of pleasantry an unfeeling Judge added life to the twenty-seven years. Now that "Paddy" reads the Bible, sings sacred music, and frequently offers up his devotions to the ever living God, it seems but just that the Board of Pardons should give him his liberty.

Suits Commenced.

V. S. Varian has commenced suit against M. C. Lake to recover $1,000, alleged to be due the plaintiff for services as attorney in a case of the late Reno Savings Bank.

H. J. McMurray commenced an action in the District Court this morning against Thomas Moore, the N. & O. contractor, to recover $9,596 75 loaned said Moore last November by by said McMurray and D. W. Balch—Balch having assigned $4,506 75 of the amount over to McMurray. The plaintiff asks that said Moore pay him $9,506 75, with interest, at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from the date of the loan, and orders the Sheriff to levy upon any and all property belonging to said Moore that can be found.

The Electrical Doll.

This new musical absurdity is said to be the most comically absurd production ever put upon the American stage. The Boston Courier says the piece was an excellent vehicle for the display of the company's undoubted natural abilities. Its various incidents are connected by a thread of plots which are unbroken from the beginning to the end, and which is strong enough to bear without strain all that is strung upon it in the way of ludicrous situations or musical novelty. The Jollities will appear here Saturday night. Seats are going quite fast.

A Winnemucca Joke.

Silver State.

Two cars containing over sixty emigrants passed west yesterday. The boys here got to jumping with one of them, a stalwart "sucker," who measured six feet in hight, and actually got the simpleton to take off his boots and jump on the hard gravel in his bare feet. He will learn better after he lives a few years on this coast.

THE NEW LANDLORD.

A Change of Management at the Baldwin.

Friends of the Baldwin hotel will be interested in knowing that H. H. Pearson has been succeeded, as manager, by George H. Fassett. Mr. Pearson is so well known all over the coast that anything concerning him is interesting news. He talks of locating in southern California. The Hotel Gazette says: "Mr. Fassett, from his long experience and intimate knowledge of the hotel business, cannot fail to prove essentially 'the right man in the right place.' Entering the office of that world-renowned hostelry, the Sherman House, Chicago, in June, 1865, he in two years rose to the responsible position of chief clerk, and enjoying the full confidence of the proprietors, Gage Bros. & Rice, be retained his position in the Sherman until its destruction by the great fire of 1870. Upon the opening of the new Sherman House, on the corner of Madison and Clinton streets, by the same proprietors, he remained with them, and when the Grand Pacific was opened in the spring of 1872, he still retained his old position until 1874. When the panic occurred in November of that year, measurably paralysing all branches of business, compelling the change of proprietors, Mr. Fassett at once secured the same position in the office of the West End hotel, one of the most popular resorts at Long Branch, Messrs. Presbury & Hildreth proprietors, with whom he remained during the seasons of '74-75, after which he took charge of the office of the, Pinkerton House, Milwaukee, where he remained until 1877, when he resigned and came to San Francisco, accompanying John A. Rice, who made his advent to this city as manager of the Baldwin, upon the completion of that magnificent structure. Taking charge of the office and inaugurating the business of the house, he remained until June, 1880, when he again entered the service of Mr. Rice as chief clerk of the popular Tremont House, Chicago, where, however, he remained only one year. Having become fascinated with life on the Pacific coast, he returned to San Francisco, again entering the office of the Baldwin, and upon Mr. Pearson's retirement succeeded him on the commencement of the new year as manager of this extensive establishment.

Fred B. Dexter, brother-in-law of Mr. Baldwin, takes Mr. Fassett's place in the office, while the veteran, M. A. French, well known to San Francisco hotel habitues, from the fall of '49 and spring of '50 to the present time, still retains his old position, and H. A. Unruh remains in charge of the books, and James E. Fitzgerald does the financiering at night. Altogether the Baldwin, under this experienced and popular corps, enters upon the year of our Lord 1882 under most favorable auspices."

Reno Atheletic Club.

At a meeting of the Reno Athletic Club, held last evening, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the next six months: President, John A. McIntosh; First Vice President, Thos. Alexander; Second Vice President, Ben. Barnett; Third Vice President, A. M. Coats; Treasurer, William Goeggel; Secretary, W. J. Henley; 1st leader, Sol Levy; 2d leader, Wm. Goeggel; 3d leader, Thomas Alexander; 4th leader, Ben Barnett. The Club wishes to call the attention of parents to its juvenile class. Boys from ten to sixteen years of age are received and instructed with horizontal and parallel bar exercise, boxing, fencing, club swinging, etc. Every precaution is taken for the safety of the boys. No serious, or even trifling accident has ever occurred during the existence of the Club. Classes are now being organized. All those who wish to join either the senior or the junior class, will please hand their names, accompanied by three dollars, to the Secretary. The club will give a grand exhibition and ball on Washington's birthday, February 22. Arrangements are now being made, and the particulars will be furnished through these columns in a few days.

Immersion.

It is said that Rev. Mr. Scott will lead twenty newly made converts, that have embraced the teachings of John, the forerunner of Christ, into the baptistry next Sunday morning.

N. & O. Matters.

Contractor Moore has gone east and has failed to pay the laborers for work peformed on the Nevada and Oregon under his contract. The Directors of the company met yesterday and talked the situation over. The contractor having failed to pay his men, the Directors advised them to file liens and secure themselves against loss, the Company agreeing to pay the expense of filing the lien. President Balch informed a GAZETTE reporter to-day that he had every reason to believe the difficulty would be bridged, the men paid up in full, and the work of construction be again resumed within forty days. Moore's course is unanimously condemned. He owes about seventeen thousand dollars for labor.

New Year's Callers.

The following ladies entertained their friends on New Year's: Mrs. P. B. Comstock assisted by Miss Lucy Kittrell; Mrs. N. J. Roff, assisted by her daughter, Miss Mollie; Mrs. J. H. Kinkead, assisted by Mrs. Powning, Miss Belle Gardner and Miss Katie Kinkead; Mrs. Jerry Schooling, assisted by her daughters; Mrs. M. J. Smith; Mrs. W. A. Walker; Mrs. John B. Williams and Miss Lila Dickson; Mrs. J. S. Shoemaker, assisted by Mrs. Osburn; Mrs. R. P. M. Greely, assisted by Miss Monroe; Mrs. C. W. Jones, assisted by Mrs. M. Jones. Callers were handsomely entertained at every house. It would be a hard matter to say who of the ladies was the most agreeable and charming in her attentions.

Distinguished Elocutionist.

The genial and attentive host of the Lake House is entertaining the distinguished elocutionist Mrs. M. J. Bradley, a lady who stands at the head of her profession as an artist and teacher in San Francisco and the East. Mrs. Bradley possesses wonderful versatility, her repertoire embracing every type of sentiment from the great masters to the lighter modern authors. Her presence is elegant and commanding, while her voice is of immense power and compass, rich and mellow in quality, her intonations portraying the most delicate shades of emotion or swelling into the grandest notes of passion.

One Experience From Many.

"I had been sick and miserable so long, and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense—no one seemed to know what ailed me—that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural, but when I told them what had helped me they said, 'Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy.'"—THE MOTHER.

Feeble Ladies.

Those languid, tiresome sensations, causing you to feel scarcely able to be on your feet; that constant drain that is taking from your system all its elasticity, driving the bloom from your cheeks; that continual strain upon your vital forces, rendering you irritable and fretful; can easily be removed by the use of that marvelous remedy, Hop Bitters. Irregularities and obstructions of your system are relieved at once, while the special cause of periodical pain is permanently removed. Will you heed this?

The religious welfare of Greenville, Ala., is jealously guarded by the Echo. A new theater was to be opened with "Richelieu," and the cautious editor, while admitting that the play was regarded as tolerably moral, felt it his duty to add: "We are utterly ignorant of everything in this line, having never informed ourselves upon the subject, that we are entirely unable to make any positive assertion one way or another. This notice was allowed to enter our columns with the express understanding that we are continuously and religiously opposed to theaters. We have only announced—all go at their own risk."

UNCLE BEN JO S

GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN PA ACEA.

UNCLE BEN JO was born in Bost n. in 1800. Being a botanist, he effected many wonderfu. cures with roots and herbs. In 1844 he went to South America to study botany, and while there accidentally made his great discovery. The natives of this country were quite familiar with it, and had always supposed it to be a poisonous herb, which they used for the sole purpose of keeping snakes away from their tents or houses. This they did by laying it in a circle about the same at a proper distance off. This herb, Uncle J , as well as the natives, considered a very obnoxious and poisonous one, and when green and fresh it threw off a very distasteful and repulsive odor. The herb grows about two feet high, and about eight inches of the top part of its stalk is leafless, and this part lops over and hangs downward perpendicularly, and from its carved neck to its end it increases in size, and on the end of the same is a large, burly-looking ball, which stalk and ball, in this hanging position, looks precisely like the tongue of a bell. Hence Uncle Jo named it the Bell Tongue Plant. In South America this herb is only found in the extreme interior of the country, and the natives there call it "Zarr Nero." It is a wonderful cure of kidney and liver diseases, also, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. We have a whole library full of testimonials. Sold by

TRUTH ATTESTED.

Some Important Statements of Well-Known People Wholly Verified.

In order that the public may fully realize the genuineness of the statements, as well as the power and value of the article of which they speak, we publish herewith the fac-simile signatures of parties whose sincerity is beyond question. The truth of these testimonials is absolute, nor can the facts they announce be ignored.

MOLINE, Ill., July 14, 1881.

H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN: Your remedy, the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure has been used by both my wife and myself. She used it "on general principles," as a system and liver regulator: I took the medicine for a long-standing liver trouble, which has been the source of much inconvenience, and which failed to yield to he doctor's remedies, or any other, until e used your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure. We both unite in pronouncing it to be the best medicine ever used, and in recommending it to others as a safe remedy.

S. W. Wheelock

Mayor of Moline.

CHICAGO, May 30, 1881.

H. H. Warner & Co., Rochester, N. Y.

MY DEAR SIRS: For several years I have been a sufferer, and until your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure was suggested I have not known what it is to be free from pain. My family physician attributed all my suffering to a diseased condition of my kidneys, and after he had failed to give me relief. I tried your remedy, and a well man to-day.

C. N. Harris

"Carl Pretzel"

Thousands of equally strong endorsements—many of them in cases where hope was abandoned — have been voluntarily given, showing the remarkable power of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, in all diseases of the kidneys, liver or urinary organs. If an one who reads this has any physical trouble remember the great danger of delay. dec7

THE RENO GAZETTE

For 1882 will be a better paper than it has ever been before. It now gets all the latest press dispatches, and is thus placed many hours ahead of any other paper. It has always been the policy of the proprietor to make the GAZETTE a first-class local paper, with full accounts of everything that occurs in Reno, or Washoe county, or the State of Nevada. The resources of the country are carefully studied and written up by able correspondents, and the GAZETTE has done as much as all the other papers combined in this respect.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE

contains all the reading matter of the Daily, without its advertisements. It is an eight-page paper, with good, plain letters and clean, white paper. It has increased in an extraordinary manner in the last six months, and is now growing rapidly. Its interesting matter, crisp editorials and late news make its popularity. By availing themselves of our club rates, the WEEKLY GAZETTE costs only half a dollar a year. It is given with the Bulletin, Chronicle, Examiner or Record Union, which cost alone two dollars and fifty cents, for three dollars; with Harper's publications and the Argonaut for four dollars and fifty cents a year, and with other papers in proportion. THE SUN.

1882. NEW YORK. 1882.

THE SUN for 1882 will make its fifteenth annual revolution under the present management, shining, as always, for all, big and little, mean and gracious, contented and unhappy, Republican and Democratic, depraved and virtuous, intelligent and obtuse. THE SUN'S light is for mankind and womankind of every so t but its genial warmth is for the good, while it pours hot discomfort on the blistering backs of the persistently wicked.

THE SUN of 1868 was a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertook to report in a fresh, succinct, unconventional way, all the news of the world, omitting no event of human interest, and commenting upon affairs with the fearlessness of absolute independence. The success of this experiment was the success of THE SUN. It effected a permanent change in the style of American newspapers. Every important newspaper established in this country in the dozen years past has been modelled after THE SUN. Every important journal already existing has been modified and bettered by the force of THE SUN'S example.

THE SUN of 1882 will be the same outspoken, truth-telling and interesting newspaper.

By a liberal use of the means which an abundant prosperity affords, we shall make it better than ever before.

We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, and measuring its importance, not by the traditional yardstick, but by its real interest to the people. Distance from Printing House Square is not the first consideration with THE SUN. Whenever anything happens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or Bokhara.

In politics we have decided opinions; and are accustomed to express them in language that can be understood. We say what we think about men and events. That habit is the only secret of THE SUN'S political course.

THE WEEKLY SUN gathers into eight pages the best matter of the seven daily issues. An Agricultural Department of unequaled merit, full market reports, and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific and domestic intelligence complete the WEEKLY SUN, and make it the best newspaper for the farmer's household that was ever printed.

Who does not know and read and like THE SUNDAY SUN, each number of which is a Golconda of interesting literature, with the best poetry of the day, prose every line worth reading, news, humor—matter enough to fill a good-sized book, and infinitely more varied and entertaining than any book, big or little?

If our idea of what a newspaper should be pleases you, send for THE SUN.

Our terms are as follows:

For the daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty eight columns, the price by mail, post-paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6 50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents per month, or $7 70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1 20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

(SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY,)

FOR THE COMING YEAR.

With the November number began the new series under the title of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE, which will be, in fact, a new, enlarged and improved SCRIBNER. The page is somewhat longer and wider, admitting pictures of a larger size, and increasing the reading matter about Robertson (by the late Dean Stanley), Matthew Arnold, Christiana Rossetti, and Cardinal Newman, and of the younger American authors, Wm. D. Howells, Henry James, Jr., and George W. Cable.

Scenes of Thackeray's Hawthorne's and George Eliot's Novels, succeeding the illustrated series on the scenes of Dickens' novels.

The Reform of the Civil Service. Arrangements have been made for a series of able papers on this pressing political question.

Poets and Poetry in America. There will be studies of Longfellow, Whittier, Emerson, Lowell and others, by E. C. Stedman.
